THE ENGLISH MISSION.

It is reported that the President will probably appoint Robert C. Schenck, of Ohio, as Minister to England, and whether this report is true or not, it is to be hoped that somebody will soon be discovered in the country who is both able and willing to represent this country effectively at the Court of St. James.

less notorious, while his skill in serving a desperate cause is amply attested. The least that Wikoff and Sanders can do, after postponing their departure from Paris to the moment when it was most likely to injure the French cause, is to become roving diplomatists in the interest of the unhappy people whom they have abandoned.

THE IMPROVING MOVEMENT made by the Union League for a Constitutional Convention has attracted considerable attention in various portions of the State, and every true friend of reform should use his best exertions to press this proposition closely upon the attention of the next Legislature.

OBITUARY.

Pierre Jules Baroche. A cable telegram brings the news of the death of the distinguished French advocate and politician Pierre Jules Baroche. He was born in Paris on November 13, 1809, and finished his studies and became an advocate in 1832.

He was always favorable to the policy of the President of the republic, and after the coup d'etat he became vice-president of the consultative commission, and as such was officially appointed to proclaim the votes taken by universal suffrage, which made Napoleon Emperor of France.

NOTICES.

FALL OVERCOATS.—Light and Medium Weight, just the thing for cool mornings and evenings; also for moderate cold weather all the year. More useful, in fact, than a heavy overcoat, and much longer in price.

TWO OR THREE COLDS in succession, will, with many constitutions, securely establish the seeds of Consumption in the system, thus converting what was originally a simple, curable affection, into one generally fatal.

THE CIRCUMSTANCES attending the exit of Secretary Cox from the Cabinet have excited a wholesome storm of indignation that ought to be productive of important results; and it seems not improbable that Mr. Cox, by leaving the Cabinet in the way he did, has done the country a more essential service than he could have done by remaining at his post.

THE "MAN OF SIN." According to the "Rev. Petroleum V. Nasby," the "man of sin" is the modern American professional politician, and the hearty applause that greeted some of the most telling hits made by "Nasby" in his discourse last evening at the Academy of Music proved that the most intelligent portion of the community fully agreed with him.
